DISCOVERY REMAINING

1. Plaintiff is in the process of scheduling the depositions of two (2) former claims representatives of Defendant Shelter Mutual Insurance Company.
 2. Plaintiff and/or Defendant Shelter will seek to depose State Farm representatives.
 3. Expert disclosures and depositions.
 4. Rebuttal disclosures and depositions.
 5. Further, other appropriate discovery may also need to be conducted, including additional written discovery and/or depositions of percipient witnesses.
 6. Any and all discovery required as permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

WHY REMAINING DISCOVERY HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED

The parties aver, pursuant to Local Rule 26-3, that good cause exists for the following requested extension. This Request for an extension of time is not sought for any improper purpose or other purpose of delay. Rather, the parties seek this extension solely for the purpose of allowing sufficient time to conduct discovery.

The parties have been diligent in moving the case forward: participating in a reasonable amount of discovery, including exchanging their initial lists of witnesses and documents; propounding written discovery requests and preparing responses thereto; records procurement; and preparing for and conducting Plaintiff's deposition.

Plaintiff in this case is incarcerated at Jean Conservation Camp and the parties were only able to depose her on October 13, 2023, after prolonged efforts to coordinate and schedule said deposition.

1 On November 20, 2023, Plaintiff's counsel sought dates for the depositions of two (2)
2 former Shelter employees. The undersigned counsel advised that they were former
3 employees and that he would attempt to locate them and coordinate dates. The undersigned
4 counsel also advised that he would be starting trial beginning December 6, 2023 and
5 continuing through December 15, 2023, and would be unavailable until sometime after trial
6 concluded. Plaintiff's counsel proposed December 19 and December 20, 2023 for the former
7 Shelter employee depositions. However, this would not give sufficient time to prepare and
8 possibly travel for these depositions after the end of trial. In an effort to accommodate all
9 counsel and parties, all parties have agreed to extend the deadlines another 60 days so that 10 depositions can be conducted in the proper sequence and consistent with the availability of 11 the multiple counsel in the case. In addition, the current deadline for expert disclosures is 12 January 11, 2023, and the various claims handling experts would require these depositions,
13 among other State Farm and Shelter representatives and 30(b)(6) witnesses. The current
14 discovery schedule does not allow for this to take place.
15

16 Extension or Modification of The Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. LR 26-3 governs
17 modifications or extension of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. Any stipulation or 18 motion to extend or modify that Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order must be made no later
19 than twenty one (21) days before the expiration of the subject deadline and must comply fully 20 with LR 26-3. This stipulation is made more than 21 days before the expiration of any 21 deadlines.
22

23 This is the fourth request for extension of time in this matter. The parties respectfully
24 submit that the reasons set forth above constitute compelling reasons for the short extension.
25 The deadline to amend pleadings has passed and the parties are not requesting that deadline
26 be reopened.
